

Butterflies

Two butterflies, one yellow, one red, are flying to a wonderful place, where sunshine and happiness are the rulers of the world.

The landscape where they are was so beautiful that they decided to stay there forever.

But then there was a very heavy storm and it destroyed the whole place, so that it became unable for every living thing to live there. The two butterflies were very sad and had to fly away and search a new place to live.
